FOUND GUILTY OF GAMBLING

Self Styled Minister of the Gospel Leads Questionable Life.--Soliciting Funds his Strong Suit.

WEDDING BELLS FOR YOUNG COUPLE.

Antone Garcia and Miss Emily Bal Married--New Court House for Wailuku.--The Londons Return.-- Mrs. D. H. Case is Improving.

GUILTY OF GAMBLING.

A well known character by the name of Lono, who claims to be a minister of the gospel was arrested Saturday, together with his wife and several boys on a charge of gambling for money.

The wife and the boys all plead guilty and had sentence suspended.
Lono plead not guilty and defended his own case.

The Court recognized an old offender in the gentleman and sentenced him to pay a fine of five dollars and costs.

Lono was formerly a hack driver in Honolulu and finding there was more money in taking up collections for the church than following the life of a jehu he assumed the garb of a minister and started out to solicit funds. After he had worked the Honolulu field he removed to Waihee and during part of the week would work on the plantation and the rest of the time could be seen with a bible under his arm and a small hand bag in his hand. He went from place to place asking for funds to build a church in Waihee and collected considerable money but it was noticed that the smell of gin was frequently on his breath after making a collection and further that he took sailors and men of questionable character to his home.

This went on for some time until he was thrown through a window from the upper story in his house in Waihee by a sailor whom he had steered to his home for unholy purposes. The next morning he beat his wife and was fined fifteen dollars by the district magistrate.

He then left for Hamakua and lived there for some years soliciting funds for the church as he said. His next move was to build a church near Kaanapali and tried his old tricks at this but was not so successful in his operations as formerly. He approached Attorney D. H. Case and stated that he wished him to subscribe the sum of five dollars toward building his church there. Mr.

Case placed his name on the list with the written proviso that the amount was to be paid on the completion of the church and on the receipt of a statement from some reliable person of Lahaina that the church had been built. A few months afterward Lono appeared on the scene and announced that the church had been completed and asked for the money but as Waihee, the plantation police officer of Lahaina stated that no church had been built Lono excused himself and departed.

Last fall he again approached the County attorney and asked for funds to repair a native church near Hamakua. On being questioned he stated that Rev. R.
B. Dodge was the custodian of the funds. Mr. Case thereupon drew up a check made payable to Rev.
R. B. Dodge only. This was too much for Lono and it is more than probable that he will not solicit funds from Mr. Case again.

For some months he has been living below the old depot and if reports are true the police would do well to keep a sharp lookout over this fellow and his wife.

BAL-GARCIA WEDDING.

A very pretty wedding took place last Saturday evening at the home of Captain and Mrs. W. E. Bal, where Miss Emily Bal and Mr. A.
Garcia were united in matrimony by Rev. F. Maximin. Miss Mary Bal, a sister of the bride was the maid of honor and Mr. John Garcia supported the groom.

After the wedding a luau was served at which sat a number of friends of the young couple and who all join in wishing them a very happy married life.

Mr. and Mrs. Garcia will make their home in a pretty cottage recently built by Mr. Garcia at the head of Church street.

WAILUKU'S NEXT PUBLIC EDIFICE.

Wailuku is going to have another Territorial building this period, and that at an early date. Last period the Maui capital received a new jail and fire station building.
The Legislature this year reappropriated, out of the loan fund, $25,000 for a new courthouse at Wailuku.

Superintendent of Public Works Holloway yesterday stated that the plans for the Maui temple of justice were all ready. All that was lacking to enable him to advertise for bids for its construction was a supply of paper for the blue prints. This little article will arrive from the Coast in a few days.

Quite a handsome building, Mr.
Holloway believes, can be erected for the amount of money appropriated. It will be built of hollow concrete blocks. There will be courtrooms for both the Circuit and District courts, quarters for the law library, chambers for the judges and jury rooms, also probably an office for the superintendent of water works.

The edifice will occupy a site near the new jail and fire station building--Advertiser.

LONDONS PARTY RETURNS.

The Jack London party, consisting of Jack London, Mrs. London, L. A. Thurston, Mrs. L. A. Thurston and L. von Tempsky returned Wednesday from a trip through the crater and around east Maui.

London expressed himself as being delighted with the trip and was surprised that more was not known of the beautiful scenery that is to be seen on the trip from Kau-apo around through Hana, Nabiku, and Keanae.

He said it was not his original intention to stay so long on that end of Maui but finding so much of interest he prolonged his trip.

The trip is not a difficult one for those who can ride horseback but when a road is built around that end of the island it will mean that thousands of people will visit the island yearly to see the grandest scenic views of the Territory.

The party left for Honolulu on the Claudine Wednesday.

UNDERGOES SERIOUS OPERA- TION

Mrs. D. H. Case the wife of County Attorney D. H. Case of Wailuku underwent an operation for appendicitis Monday at the Malulani Hospital.

She has been in delicate health for some time.

Doctor Dinagar performed the operation assisted by Doctors Raymond and St. Sure.

The condition of the patient is very promising and there seems every assurance that she will ultimately recover.

3 to 2.

Such was the score of the base ball game played at Wells' park Sunday.

It took ten innings to decide the game and as the contestants were even from the third to the tenth inning the interest was intense.

The score by innings was as follows:

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10
La Palomas	0	0	2	0	0	0	0	0	0-2
Healanis	0	2	0	0	0	0	0	0	1-3

This game was without a doubt, one of the best ever played on the field, here and next Sunday, promises to be equally as good between La Paloma's and a picked team of Kahului. Don't miss, coming for you will see good clean baseball.

BUILDING BURNS NEAR MALU- LANI HOSPITAL.

Thursday evening a building belonging to A. Enos was burned to the ground. The building was situated near the Malulani Hospital and just opposite it on the low er side of the road.

Japanese occupy the building and two of them had recently bought a moving picture machine and were giving a free exhibition with the intention of coming up town where they would charge admission.

They used gasoline under pressure and when the exhibition was over one of the operators closed the machine which blew up instantly and set fire to the veranda of the building where them a chine stood.

The two men were badly burned, one about the head and the other
